

AIO13

FINAL PROGRAMME

Programme Final

International Commission for Historical Demography (ICHD)
Affiliated Organization of the International Committee of Historical Sciences

Sydney, 3-9 juillet 2005

Sydney, 3-9, July 2005

*University of New South Wales
(UNSW),
Sydney, Australia*

ICHD sessions will be July 6 to July 9, 2005.

Languages: French and English.

Organisateurs - Organizers

Commission Internationale de Démographie Historique

International Commission for Historical Demography avec l'aide de,

with the help of

Centre de Recherches Historiques de Paris (EHESS/CNRS: UMR 8558), and the University of Minnesota

20th International Congress of Historical Sciences (CISH)

www.cishsydney2005.org

For further questions, contact Mary Louise Nagata, coordinator of the Organizing Committee:

Mary Louise Nagata <mnagata@fmarion.edu>

Local Committee:

Alison Mackinnon, University of South Australia

Pamela Sharpe, University of Western Australia

Glenda Strachan, Griffith University, Brisbane

Portia Robinson, Macquarie University

Peter Gunn, Lincoln College

General Secretariat : Antoinette Fauve-Chamoux

EHESS/CRH

2, rue Emile Faguet

75014 Paris France fauve@msh-paris.fr

Central Lecture Block and Mathews Building are located on the University of New South Wales, Kensington Campus (Upper part, near the main Library). See UNSW website: www.unsw.edu.au

WEDNESDAY PLENARY SESSIONS

Wednesday, July 6, 2005, 8:30-18:00, Room: Central Lecture Block 1

Plenary session: Reconstructing data into other formats or levels of analysis: See program

.....

THURSDAY SESSIONS

Thursday, July 7, 9:30-12:45, Mathiews Building, Room 310

Panel : Aging in historical perspective

Chair: Pamela Sharpe, University of Western Australia (Australia)

Comments: Peter Gunn, Lincoln College (Australia)

Antoinette Fauve-Chamoux, EHESS (France)

Solvi Sogner, University of Oslo (Norway)

Pat Thane, University of London (GB)

Gender and Old Age in 20century England

Sheila Cooper, University of Indiana (USA)

The elderly and retirement in seventeenth and early eighteenth-century England

Nigel Goose, University of Hertfordshire (GB)

Poverty, old age and gender in 19c. England : working women and poor old men in rural and urban Hertfordshire

Francisco García González, Université de Castilla-La Mancha (Espagne)

L'âge comme sujet d'étude: une histoire de la vieillesse en Espagne

Ofelia Rey Castelao, Université de Santiago de Compostela (Espagne)

La vieillesse à la fin de l'Ancien régime: le cas espagnol

Thursday, July 7, 9:30-12:30, Mathiews Building, Room 312

Panel: Virgin Soil Epidemics Revisited

Chair: Robert McCaa, University of Minnesota (USA)

Comment: Bruce Fetter, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee (USA)

Comment: David Cahill, University of New South Wales (Australia)

David S. Jones, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (USA)

Virgin soils revisited

Steven W. Hackel, Oregon State University (USA)

Why we don't need virgin soil epidemics to explain native depopulation: California as a case study

Gyan Prakash Sharma, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi (India)

Combating Epidemics: Plague Management in Colonial India

Jean Louis Rallu, INED (France)

Variations in epidemic mortality in time and space: the South Pacific example

Robert Jackson (USA)

Mortality Crises in the Jesuit Missions of Paraguay, 1730-1740

Thursday, July 7, 14:00-16:00, Mathiews Building, Room 310

Panel: Fertility decline in interdisciplinary perspective I

New perspectives on the fertility transition

Chair: Alison Mackinnon, University of South Australia (Australia)

Gopinath Ravindran, Jamia Millia Islamia University (India)

Understanding Fertility decline in Southern India 1881-1981

Margaret Anderson, History Trust of South Australia, Adelaide (Australia)

South Australian women and the fertility transition in the late nineteenth/early twentieth century

Stefan Warg, University of Umea (Sweden)

Women's organisations and the rationalisation of sexuality. Information and debate on child limitation and sexuality in Sweden 1880 to 1930

Sofia Kling, University of Umea (Sweden)

Reproduction, morality debates and adult education in Sundsvall, Sweden, 1880-1940

Thursday, July 7, 16:15-18:15, Mathieus Building, Room 310

Panel: Fertility decline in interdisciplinary perspective II

Fertility in the 20th century : downhill all the way ?

Chair: Mary Louise Nagata, EHESS/CRH (France) & Francis Marion University (USA)

Futoshi Kinoshita, University of Tsukuba (Japan)

The fertility decline in Japan 1920-1970

Renate Howe, Deakin University (Australia)

The Society for Christian Marriage; an historical study of gender relations in the Australian Student Christian Movement

Alison Mackinnon, University of South Australia (Australia)

Triumph of the family or major turning point ? women and the baby boom on 1950s Australia

Thursday, July 7, 14:00-16:00, Mathieus Building, Room 312

Panel: Inheritance systems in comparative perspective I

Chair: Antoinette Fauve-Chamoux, EHESS/CRH (France)

Comments: Emiko Ochiai, University of Kyoto (Japan)

Marie-Pierre Arrizabalaga, Université de Cergy-Pontoise/CRH (France)

Unequal inheritance and emigration in the Pyrenees in the nineteenth century: the Basque case

Hans Henrik Bull, University of Oslo (Norway)

Alodial law and inheritance strategies in Norway in the 18th and 19th century

Satoshi Murayama, Kagawa University (Japan)

Determinants of inheritance patterns in Japanese preindustrial societies

Peter Baskerville, University of Victoria (Canada)

Modernity from the Grave: Changing Inheritance Patterns in a Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century Canadian City.

Thursday, July 7, 16:15-18:15, Mathieus Building, Room 312

Panel: Inheritance systems in comparative perspective II

Chair: Marie Pierre Arrizabalaga, Université de Cergy-Pontoise/ CRH (France)

Comments: Antoinette Fauve-Chamoux, EHESS/CRH (France)

Olivier Zeller, Université de Lyon (France)

Branche aînée et branches cadettes : concentration et dispersion patrimoniale de l'Ancien Régime au XIX^e siècle

Ofelia Rey Castelao, Université de Santiago de Compostela (Espagne)

Femmes et système d'héritage: les modèles espagnols comparés, 16^e-18^e siècles

Francisco García González, Université de Castilla-La Mancha (Espagne)

Stratégies de reproduction et système successoral en Espagne intérieure sous l'Ancien Régime

Llorenç Ferrer Alos, Université de Barcelone (Espagne)

Systèmes égalitaires et inégalitaires en Espagne au XVIII^e siècle: la diversité de situations et de réponses

.....

.....

FRIDAY SESSIONS

Friday, July 8, 10:00-12:45, Mathiews Building, Room 310

Panel: Domestic service and domestic servants

Chair: Olivier Zeller, Université de Lyon (France)

Comment: Lucienne Hubler, Dictionnaire historique de la Suisse, Bern (Switzerland)

Comment: Solvi Sogner, University of Oslo (Norway)

Sarah Pech, Université Paris IV-Sorbonne (France)

Serviteurs et servantes à Madrid aux XVIe et XVIIe siècles: un groupe social varié et très hiérarchisé

Shurlee Swain, University of Melbourne (Australia)

Maids and Mothers in 19th c. Australia

Mary Louise Nagata, EHESS/CRH (France) & Francis Marion University (USA)

Domestic service in early modern Japan

Robert Lee, University of Liverpool (GB)

Domestic service and domestic servants: a port-city comparison of nineteenth-century Bremen and Liverpool.

Friday July 8, 9:00-12:45, Mathiews Building, Room 312

Panel: Historical demography of native peoples and minorities in comparative perspective

Chair: Peter Sköld, University of Umea (Sweden)

Comments: Peter Sköld, University of Umea (Sweden)

Robert Lee, University of Liverpool (UK)

Defining Minority Populations, c.1850-1939: the development of identity markers in Germany within an international context.

Renzo Derosas, University of Venice (Italy)

Jewish fertility in 19th-century Venice: A test of the "minority status" hypothesis.

Sergiu Digol, Moldova Academy of Sciences (Moldavie)

Migration processes in Basarabia and Transnistria during World War II (ethno-demographical aspect)

Oleg Borisovich Berenshtein, Ukrainian Academy of Sciences (Ukraine)

Jewish population of Naddnepryanska Ukraine reflected in the All-Russian census

Vsevolod Naulko, Ukrainian Academy of Sciences (Ukraine)

Ethnodemographic Processes in Present-day Ukraine

David Cahill, University of New South Wales (Australia)

Estimating elites: the Inca nobility of Peru under colonial rule

Blanca Tovias, University of New South Wales (Australia)

Colonialism and Demographic Catastrophes in the Americas: Blackfoot tribes of the Northwest, 1870-1920

.....

BUSINESS MEETING

Friday, July 8, 14:00-16:00

General Assembly

Assemblée générale

of International Commission for Historical Demography

Commission Internationale de Démographie Historique

(ICHD/CIDH)

Mathiews Building, Room 310
